Celebrate

World Environment Day

It's not too late to join over 140 garden retailers in the Nursery & Garden Industry World Environment Day promotion.

Celebrating World Environment Day on 5 June, the promotion will run throughout June.

Just fill in the attached form to receive your World Environment Day retailer kit. Designed to be your ongoing environmental marketing resource, the posters, postcards and display ideas in the kit will appeal to your customers all year round.

Become the 'green expert' in your local area.

Don't miss out. It's free!
